Lakeside Junior High School

THE 1960

LANCE

Construction of Lakeside Junior High, Fort Wayne's first junior high school, began on January 28, 1959.

As our school nears completion, Mr. Lindley places memos in a cornerstone during cornerstone laying ceremony.

Taking time out during a board meeting to comply with the photographer are Mr. Aaron T. Lindley, Superintendent of Fort Wayne Community Schools, and school board members: Mr. E. A. Yergens, Mrs. Marion Rastetter, Mr. Willard Shambaugh, Mr. Gordon Reeves, Mr. William Miller, and Mr. Max Scott.

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. Harold McSwane, our busy principal, keeps things running smoothly at Lakeside Junior High - a tremendous task.

Mr. Robert Cowan, our staff assistant, has provided us with a very fine guidance program this year.

Of invaluable assistance to both teachers and students are our friendly and efficient secretaries, Mrs. Irene Bobilya and Mrs. Ruth Messerschmidt.
